GRACELAND FOREVER

Graceland Forever, dear Alma Mater,
Long may she ever firm keep her stand;
Her sons and daughters carry to others
Her fame throughout the land.
Graceland College, we're all for you;
Strong united, loyal and true,
We'll carry on till victory is won;
O Graceland we're all for you.

ALMA MATER

Come Graceland sons and daughters all, and join our happy throng,
With loyal voices let us raise, our Alma Mater song;
O Hillcrest, Home of vision wide, where brotherhood holds sway,
Where all may learn in life and lore 'tis Thee we praise today.

Through memory a thread shall run, of golden richness made,
Cementing there the treasures rare in thy foundation laid;
O Alma Mater, guide us on, Thy standard e'er unfold;
And call us on with memories of days 'neath the Blue and Gold.

Through years and decades long to come Thy battlemented tower shall rise to call the youth of lands to answer to the floor;
And while Thy work shall carry on, our benisons are told
In lives of honor, truth, and right; The seal of the Blue and Gold.

Walker Head Resident Livens Dorm

by Celeste Cooper

Sounds of laughter can usually be heard ringing in the halls of Walker Hall. What's so lively in the old, 1921 building? The new head resident, that's what!

Always in a witty humor, Janet Ward is the occupant of Walker's plush resident apartment. Janet returns to Graceland, her Alma Mater, after a year of being head resident of a women's dorm at Park College.

A native of the south, or as we would say, "A dyed in the wool southerner," Janet says her real home is in the sunshine city of Pensacola, Fla. She was a 1981 graduate of Graceland and majored in Religion.

Janet came to Graceland because of her interest in Student Personnel Administration. She thinks we have a great housing program (well, she's part of it) and feels lucky to be able to work with the quality staff we have here.

Perhaps some of you have seen Janet in the Career Counseling Office. Well, if you have she's not searching for another job but better yet, she's working there part-time assisting in workshops and career planning. Janet is also involved in the newly formed AWARE group for women and continually supports the feminist movement.

Now to get down to the entertaining part about Janet. Her favorite thing is to talk with people, and that's one of the reasons she enjoys her job so much. She is always welcome to a warm chat and a hot cup of Cafe' Vienna, or Cafe'Francais, or Suisse Mocha, your pick!

Because of her cooking talent, several of us have tried to talk Janet into opening a Mexican restaurant. She makes delicious burritos which are her specialty. But she can alternate it with stuffed taco potatoes, a slight variation from the burrito--take away the flour tortilla and add a baked potato!

One of the original advocates of the Real Women craze here at Graceland, Janet says she has tried to set an example to the girls in the dorm. She only wears sweats in her apartment, (with an occassional dash out to the lounge) and never goes to supper at 4:30. Maybe 4:45, but never 4:30!

I could go on and on about Janet, but instead, you should meet her yourself. She usually takes a working coffee break around 2:30 in the Swarm Inn. If you don't see her, just tune your ear to the loudest laugh.

Janet moves in (again!)

Atara — Shalom or Solah

Shalom, Faunce; Football Champs

An interception returned for a touchdown by Michelle Hampton proved to be the decisive play in Shalom's 13-6 win over Atara.

Playing in a bitter wind, neither team was able to score for the first three quarters. But on the first play of the fourth quarter Hampton hit Nancy Newcom with a scoring pass giving Shalom a 6-0 lead.

Atara came back to tie the score on a Lisa Freberg pass to Debbie Holben. The touchdown was set up on passes from Freberg to Holben and Jane Landrum.

After holding Shalom, the Atara offense took over in their own territory, but Mickelle Hampton stopped Atara's championship dreams with her interception and return down the sideline for the winning points.

Tiona and Faunce confronted each other in a defensive struggle for the Men's Championship Wednesday afternoon. However, Faunce made the best long drive to score the only touchdown of the game for a 6-2 victory.

The only points in the first quarter came on a high snap from center resulting in a safety for Tiona. The runners-ups had two other scoring opportunities but could not crack in. One drive was stopped when a fourth down Greg Long pass was caught just two yards shy of the end zone.

In third period action, Faunce's quarterback, Tim Braby, shoveled a pass to Shaun Parton who streaked down the sidelines deep into Tiona's territory. A few plays later Braby threw a pass to Larry Somma who juggled the ball into the end zone.

The Faunce defense was penetrated by Tiona, but would not let Tiona onto paydirt.

Faunce had moved into the championship game with a victory over Stewart Manor, while Tiona had knocked off Aaron.

Parson To Nationals

Dee Parson became the first Graceland student of the year to qualify for the National Forensic Association Championships in Public Speaking Events Saturday, as she placed third in Sales at the annual Iowa State University Cyclone Individual Events tournament. Under NFA rules she is qualified for the national championships in persuasive speaking, since persuasion is the objective of a sales speech.

No Graceland student has ever qualified for nationals this early in the year. Parson, president of the Graceland Forensic Association, also competed in extemporaneous and impromptu speaking.

Also attending the tournament were Sophomores Karen Chadwick and Vicki Russell. Both competed in extemporaneous oral interpretation. Chadwick also entered dramatic interpretation. Russell's second event was prose interpretation.

Dear Mom and Dad,

Today was another ordinary day in Shalom House. First I woke up to the calm, serene lulling of Julie White's vacuum cleaner. That's alright -- 8 o'clock is usually when I get up on Saturdays. So I decided to get into the shower. Suddenly Jill Bailey came popping out of her door. Uh, Oh, here comes Stacy White -- move out of the way. No chance - I got squished between them. After narrowly surviving being scorched to death by someone neglecting to yell 'Hot Water,' I start towards my room. Just before reaching the door, I turn to see Dace with another bread bag on. Sure enough, it was raining.

I was just about to call you but as I approached the phone, I heard a familiar giggle - Mari Lynn on the phone to Bobby again. I sure can't wait until they get married.

We have simese twins in our dorm this year. They have weird names, Grace and Tim. I think they were born with his arm connected to her neck! They do come apart sometimes though. Then Phyllis, Grace's roommate runs through the hall and down the steps to the L.D. phone. It's always her boyfriend. Anymore, we yell

Brother/Sister Houses

Brother/Sister houses for Spring Semester 1983 were announced by COSA President Sheri Tingle at Monday's COSA meeting. According to Sheri, a committee assigned brother/sister houses trying not to repeat any pairings that had occured in recent semesters. Sheri explained that Shalom was the only women's house never to have shared a men's house with another woman's house so was the logical candidate to share one this semester. Solah was paired with Shalom because it was one of the first houses to have shared a men's house when the rotation basis was started several years ago. The brother/sister houses are as follows:

Aaron - Belavera
Agape - Paloma
Cheville - Aponivi
Closson - Traver
Edwards - Kimora
Faunce - Atara
St. Manor - Sariah
Tiona - Shalom & Solah

House Presidents Announced

by Jani Hill

House Presidents for the 1983-'84 school year were recently announced following several weeks of intensive review. After filling out an extensive application and appearing before their peers in a bearpit answering various questions, the candidates then took part in a role play session where they were faced with various problems that could be encountered in a residence hall situation.

After the prospective H.P.'s survived the above, the ballots were then cast within the house and the winners were sent up for Board interviews. The Board consisted of Director of Housing Marian Killpack, Head Residents Scott Kornman, Betty Winholtz, and Janet Ward, and two present House Presidents. The Board interviewed each candidate and then decided who will fill next year's H.P. slots. And here are those candidates who earned the title of House President for '83-84.

Men's Houses

Aaron	Jay Dudley
Agape	Doug Lavery
Cheville	Tony Austin
Closson	Wayne Diveley

Atara, Kimora, Paloma and Sariah all remain open to date. Newly elected candidates will appear before the Board very soon and results will be reported as soon as possible.

In addition, the President of the Council of House Presidents position was filled this week. John Bevington of Aaron house will assume the position following commencement activities.

Refrain:

Shalom, Shalom. You'll find Shalom the nicest greeting you know;
It means bonjour, salud, and shoal, and
twice as much as hello.
It means a million lovely things,
like peace be yours, welcome home.
And even when you say goodbye,
you say goodbye with Shalom.

Interlude:

It's a very useful word,
It can get you through the day;
All you really need to know,
You can hardly go wrong,
This is your home, as long as you say:
